

Fall Seminars and Events 2017

As always, our seminars are fun and informative; watch for more details on each one at www.knollwoodgardens.com or in our email newsletters. Please call to register at 937-426-0861.

Saturday, September 9, 10:00
The Fascinating World of Daylilies

Daylilies are like jewels in the garden: vibrant, unique, and stunning in their variety. Bob Faulkner, owner of Natural Selection Daylilies near Vandalia, has been hybridizing for over 20 years, including creations such as 'Barb Kedler' (pictured) named after his sister, our very own Barb! Learn how new varieties are created as well as care and grooming of daylilies for your own garden. Please call to register.

Saturday, September 16 10:00
Time For Action: Preparing for Fall and Winter

Whether it's cleaning up and bringing your houseplants back indoors, over-wintering tropical, cleaning up and preparing perennials and roses for their long winters nap, or improving and prepping your vegetable gardens for a healthier season next spring, John Scott and Barb Kedler have all the answers! Bring your questions and take home lots of great tips and plans. Please call to register.

Saturday, September 23, 10:00
Some Fruits For Your Labors

When you are considering adding some new trees and shrubs to your landscape, do you consider making them do double duty? Cleve will be discussing the many options for adding edibles to your landscape from berries to apples and more. A simple maintenance plan will have you on your way to beautiful and tasty backyard! Please call to register.

Saturday, September 30 10:00
