

Spring Seminars and Events 2018

As always, our seminars are fun and informative; watch for more details on each one at www.knollwoodgardens.com or in our email newsletters. Please call to register at 937-426-0861.

Saturday, March 3 10:00

Sowing Your Future: Seed Starting Basics

Join us for a lively discussion with Rich Pearson on spring-seeding vegetables and annuals, the time-tested way to save money, grow exactly what you want, and take the gardening process from start to finish. Timing, direct-seeding vs. transplants, techniques, "hardening off", seed selection.... he'll share years of experience, so bring your questions! Please call to register.

Saturday, March 10 10:00

Stylish Succulents: Make and Take Workshop

Succulents continue to be the "now" plant of choice for their easy care and sculptural qualities. Maggie Rigney from Timbuk Farms will present an overview of succulent care, types, and details, and then assist you in planting a galvanized container with your choice of succulents. Cost is $24.99 and includes everything: this is a great activity with your friends. Space is limited, call to register.

Saturday, March 17 10:00

Rise and Shine: Waking the Perennial Garden in Spring

Every spring it is exciting to see the first perennials emerge from hiding and spread their leaves in the sunshine...but then what do you do to help them be their best?! Kim Hupman from the Greene County Extension Service will discuss cutback and cleanup, pruning and dividing, transplanting and fertilization, frost protection, weed control, and more to greet them with confidence! Please call to register.

Saturday, March 24 10:00

Hope Taft: Ohio's Scenic Waterways

In celebration of the 50th Anniversary of Ohio's Scenic Waterways, Hope Taft has a beautiful Powerpoint presentation about the history and preservation of these state treasures. You'll be introduced to parts of the state you may never have visited, and be inspired to get out and enjoy them yourself this summer! This is a wonderful program, don't miss! Please call to register.

Saturday, April 7 10:00

Hydrangea-mania: The Hottest Player in the Landscape

Presented by our own Hydrangeamaniac, Cleve White, get a refresher course on the care and feeding of these garden beauties, selecting the right specimen for your garden, and a sneak peek at some of the gorgeous new introductions coming our way this year. Lots of great info and pictures in his updated Powerpoint presentation. Please call to register.

Garden Party Saturday, April 14 10:00 pm

The Tasty Garden: Herbs to Know and Use

Join Knollwood's Cary and Barb for the fun history of herbs, choosing the right ones for you, easy growing tips, and really fun ways to use the bounty to come! Cooking demonstration, recipes, and a few samples too, will have you inspired to add a few herbs to your garden and use every last leaf! Please call to register!

Garden Party Sunday, April 15 12:00

Insights and Inspiration: Container Gardening Secrets

Knollwood's John Scott and Vicki Loewer are super excited to share this Powerpoint about our refreshed container garden program! Learn how and why we chose the new combos and use those tips when you plant your own creations! New plants and combos for 2018!
